

George,

Whatever the churches property in my possession is ready to be turned over to the proper authority.

I wish you to get busy immediately and go through the proper procedure that I may get rid of what is here.

I am making out no checks and am holding bills for your incoming financial secretary.

Respectfully,

Charles W. Getz