JUST LIKE HIS DAD

"Well, what are you going to be, my boy,
When you have reached manhood's years:
A doctor, a lawyer, or actor great,
Moving throngs to laughter and tears?"
But he shook his head, as he gave reply
In a serious way he had:
"I don't think I'd care to be any of them;
I want to be like my Dad!"

He wants to be like his Dad! You men,
Did you ever think, as you pause,
That the boy who watches your every move
Is building a set of laws?
He's moulding a life you're the model for
And whether it's good or bad.
Depends on the kind of example set
To the boy who'd be like his Dad.

Would you have him go everywhere you go?
Have him do just the things you do?
And see everything that your eyes behold,
And woo all the gods you woo?
When you see the worship that shines in the eyes
Of your lovable little lad.
Could you rest content if he gets his wish
And grows to be like his Dad?

It's a job that none but yourself can fill;
It's a charge you must answer for;
It's a duty to show him the road to tread
'Eer he reaches his manhood's door.
It's a debt you owe for the greatest joy
On this old earth to be had;
This pleasure of having a boy to raise
Who wants to be like his Dad!

Tatum At Father-Son Banquet

Jim Tatum, University of Maryland football coach who has been named by many "coach of the year," will visit East Baltimore January 21. He is scheduled to be one of the principal speakers at the annual Father and Son banquet held by the United Evangelical Church, located at East Ave. and Dillon St.

Other guests slated to appear are Bill Meek, junior varsity coach at Maryland; Ed Rommel, outstanding American League baseball umpire; Howie Moss, leading home run hitter of the International League and young Jack Dunn, owner of the Baltimore Orioles.

Eddie Fenton, sports announcer of WCBM will act as master of ceremonies. Fred Kacher, chairman of the entertainment committee has announced that the dinner will get underway at 6:30 p.m. and that women from the church will serve.

Assisting Kacher are Wilbur Ermer, Edwin Meyers, Gabriel Jorio, and Fred Gross. Genial Marcus Strovel is president of the United Men's Club.

Although highly entertaining speeches by Tatum and other principal guests are expected to be the highlight of the evening, similar events in the past have proved that more than 200 fathers and sons can expect several surprises.
