

STATISTICS

VISITATION

There were a total of 723 homes visited.

There was a total of 132 cards mailed invitations because families were not at home at the time of the call to invite them.

There were approximately 30 homes that were mailed invitations because of the distance involved in trying to visit same.

There were 23 persons who had moved and their address change could not be obtained. It is presumed they are no longer interested in this Church.

There were 22 persons who had moved and their addresses were obtained.

There were 6 reported as now attending other churches.

Approximately 12 to 15 cards had notations of persons ill, whom the Pastor has or will visit.

There were 4 cards marked "no interest."

Several cards were marked indicating persons were very pleased that someone had called to invite them. The overall remark of all persons returning cards was to the effect that in the majority of homes they were received most graciously.
