Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: Life here in the city, as the days grow warmer, is expanding our horizons beyond the confines of our homes. We think of the beach, the mountains, or someplace else to spend our leisure time or our vacation.

People: We have left our homes and come here to praise the living God. We celebrate God's victory over death and the grave. And we look forward to celebrate the birthday of the Church and God's gift of Himself to us as the Holy Spirit.

Pastor: Then let us not forget to celebrate God's ongoing presence here in the city. We must remember how God is always experienced as love in action. And love isn't love until it is given away.

People: That reminds us that often our loving is too shallow, too impersonal. God's love became a person, our Lord Jesus Christ, perfect love for us and others.

All: Help us to remember, O God, the imperfections of our lives and of our loving others. Restore in us the need to look beyond ourselves for new opportunities to care. Take from us our selfishness. And put instead into our lives the right spirit of helpfulness toward others. For we pray in the name of Him who gave Himself for us all, Jesus Christ our Lord,

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.
