Call to Confession and Confession of Sin

Pastor: In John's Gospel Jesus declares Himself to be the friend of his disciples. He calls them to Himself and calls them into a new life of friendship. We too, have been called out of our homes to experience that friendship here.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: In Luke's Gospel Jesus is described as one who accepted public sinners or criminals. He was seen in bad company. He ate and drank with disreputable people. He was a friend to sinners and tax collectors, those known to be without friends.

People: Greater love has no person than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Pastor: We have been called and are called to become friends of Jesus. We are called also to be friends with those whom Jesus chose to be His friends. Let us recognize our own lack of friendship and our own sin in not being friends with those who need us most to be their friends.

All: Gracious and loving God, we acknowledge how we have not always been a friend to those who needed us most. We apologize for our shortsightedness. We ask your forgiveness for seeking our own way instead of the way that Jesus taught us. Pardon us and receive us anew as friends of Jesus. In His name.

Amen

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Christ, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Christ, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Lord, have mercy upon us.

People Sing: Lord, have mercy upon us.

Pastor: Hear the promises of God: "Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find, knock, and it will be opened to you." "If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins." I announce therefore in the name of Jesus Christ, that we are forgiven.

Praise Versicle (No. 517)

Pastor: O Lord, open our lips.

People Sing: And our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.
