CHRISTMAS GREETING AND CALL TO CELEBRATE:

Pastor: Advent has ended and Christmas is here. I greet you in the Name of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. And I call you to forsake the ill-intended ways of the outside world in order to give your full attention to the celebration now beginning. Join me as together we bring praise and honor to the living God, who through the Gift of His own Son showers blessings of fulfillment, forgiveness, justice, and joy upon us

People: We heed your call and bring greetings to you and to each other. We respond in faith to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. We are encouraged by the hope made sure by God's incarnation into our kind of humanity. And we are enriched by His never-ending love, given to each of us as an infant-child too fragile to feel secure without our kind of caring love.

Pastor: The faith, hope and love that you bring this night is also shared by others too sick, too feeble, too scared, or too unconcerned to be with us here in this place of worship and beauty. Therefore, our lives of faith, our words of hope, and our deeds of love must speak louder than the songs we sing. And our worship of the Christ-child can never remain just within these walls, but reach out like the beams of a star those in need of His Guiding Light.

People: We come here this night, as came the shepherds and kings to the manger in Bethlehem, to celebrate the giving of God's most precious gift to us, His only begotten Son. And we come as a response to that Gift to give of ourselves to Him, to His Church, and to others. With praise on our lips and love in our hearts, we are here to share together the story of that most blessed event.
